

LAWYERS FORCED TO RETURN EXHIBITS

Prosecution in Dynamite Conspiracy Case Refuses to Trust the Defense.

KERN PLEADS IN VAIN

Munsey's Correspondence With John J. McNamara Is Fully Identified.

By International News Service.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 12.—At the adjournment of federal court in the dynamite conspiracy case tonight, District Attorney Miller stood up and solemnly informed the attorneys for the defense that they would have to return the government's exhibits they had borrowed.

Senator John W. Kern, for the defense, then asked if he might take certain letters introduced in evidence over Sunday and prepare for the cross-examination of witnesses who testified concerning the letters this afternoon. Judge Anderson told Senator Kern he would have an opportunity to see the letters, but he could not take them over Sunday.

The defense has asked several times for permission to examine government evidence, but Judge Anderson has refused to permit it to be turned over to the defense for more than examination during court sessions. They have to hand it all back when court adjourns.

Documents Identified.

The task of identifying, by J. J. McNamara's former stenographer, some five hundred alleged incriminating letters, was begun by the government today.

In addition to this, these stenographers also told of the routine business methods of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers.

Among the correspondence identified was that between J. E. Munsey, Salt Lake ironworkers' official, under indictment, and J. J. McNamara, confessed dynamiter, now in prison.

Munsey is the defendant who is alleged to have secreted in Salt Lake J. E. McNamara after McNamara had dynamited the Los Angeles Times.

The work of identifying these letters before they are read to the jury, will take several days, as the correspondence covers a period of five years, from 1906 to 1911.

Magazine in Evidence.

Copies of the Bridgmen's magazine, edited by J. J. McNamara and said by the government to contain references to dynamitings, were introduced in evidence and identified. The alleged incriminating extracts therefrom will be read to the jury later.

Also introduced and identified was the circular letter signed by the International Iron Workers' executive board, telling the nine-hundred local unions that, despite the union's constitutional provision that all receipts and disbursements be published once a month, it was deemed advisable not to publish anything but the receipt.

The government says this was done so the union could spend its money for dynamitings and the action brands the entire executive board as conspirators against the government.

The defense claims the executive board took this action to keep the non-union contractors out of the business against from knowing its financial condition from time to time.

Pohlman En Route.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 12.—H. W. Pohlman, the Seattle labor leader who was cited for contempt in the United States court here for having refused to produce union records before the federal grand jury in the dynamiting conspiracy investigation, arrived today on the way to Indianapolis. Pohlman said

HUMORS IN THE BLOOD

Humors get into the blood usually because of an inactive condition of the system. Those members whose duty it is to expel all refuse matter do not properly perform their work, and an unhealthy accumulation is absorbed into the blood. Then instead of performing its natural function of nourishing the skin the circulation irritates and inflames it because of its impure condition. A thorough cleansing of the blood is the only certain cure for any skin disease; external applications can only give temporary relief. S. S. S. goes into the circulation and drives all humors from the blood, and in this way makes a permanent and complete cure in every form of skin trouble. S. S. S. supplies the blood with the nutritive qualities necessary to sustain the skin and preserve its natural texture and perfect appearance.

S. S. S. cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, and all other skin eruptions or diseases. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free.

CHICAGO SHAKEN UP BY FORTY-MILE WIND

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—A forty-mile wind made many kinds of trouble today in Chicago. Sign boards and awnings went whirling through all the streets and there were plate glass windows shattered in all parts of the city.

Daniel Burns, 42 years old, was blown against a store window and smashed the pane. He suffered severe cuts about the face and hands and while running for a doctor's office was chased and arrested by a watchman.

IRISH IMMIGRANTS SCARED BY HOLDUPS

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—John and Hugh O'Donahue, brothers, who arrived in this country from Ireland three weeks ago, jumped out of a third story window early today and ran a full mile in their underclothes before they considered it safe to stop. They had been confronted by a holdup man with a revolver in their lodging.

Two policemen who saw the brothers jump from the window captured a man supposed to be the robber. He had in his pockets considerable English currency which the brothers identified as theirs.

The O'Donahues were taken to the county hospital to have their bruises attended to and their nerves restored.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY MEETS IN SEATTLE

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 12.—The special federal grand jury assembled today and received its instructions from United States Judge Howard. The purpose for which the jury was called has not been disclosed, but it has been semi-officially announced that the white slave traffic, the Indianapolis "dynamite" trial and the Hanford case will not be considered. It is said that only one subject of importance is to be taken up; that a great mass of evidence had been gathered by the government, and that indictments would be returned early next week.

THIRTY THOUSAND IN PARADE AT LAWRENCE

LAWRENCE, Mass., Oct. 12.—Thirty thousand American flags were carried through three miles of muddy streets today by 30,000 men, women and children in a demonstration against the Industrial Workers of the World. Hardly a building in the city was without decorations. Lining the streets through which the parade passed the spectators stood deep and almost without exception every one waved the Stars and Stripes.

KNOX IS AFRAID OF INJURING HIS VOICE

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 12.—Secretary of State Knox decided today not to go on the proposed automobile ride to Mount Rainier National park, fearing the journey into the high altitude might affect his voice. The secretary is to address two big political meetings in Seattle and Portland next Monday and Tuesday nights and did not wish to risk the exposure of the trip.
